INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION

Rabun Gap-Nacoochee School’s financial aid program seeks to provide qualified, motivated students from broad socio-economic and cultural backgrounds with the opportunity to attend Rabun Gap. However, Rabun Gap recognizes that the primary responsibility for financing an independent school education rests with the student’s parents.

All families receive some assistance with the cost of a Rabun Gap education, as the tuition does not cover the yearly cost to educate a student. The difference is made up by income from the school’s endowment and through charitable support, such as the Annual Giving Campaign.

Financial aid awards are based on a family’s demonstrated financial need without regard to race, color, gender, religion, or ethnic origin. Financial aid decisions are made after a student has completed the entire application and acceptance process.
