Rabun Gap-Nacoochee School, a day and boarding school of 600 PK-12 students in the mountains of northeast Georgia, is seeking a Middle School Humanities teacher for a full-time, exempt (10 months) position beginning in August 2020. Middle School teachers deliver instruction in 70 minute classes on a 6 day rotating schedule. This position reports to the Head of Middle School. The applicant should have teaching experience, preferably at an independent middle school.

Responsibilities

- Teach 4 sections of Middle School Math
- Serve as an Advisor
- Coach two seasons of athletics or after school activities
- Serve on a dorm team
- Participate in all required meetings
- Perform other supervisory duties as required of all Middle School teachers - lunch, recess, tutorial, break, tutorial, morning supervision
- Communicate with parents/guardians about student and advisee progress as necessary
- Travel on annual middle school overnight trips in the fall

Skills and Requirements

- Bachelor’s degree in relevant subject area (Master’s preferred).
- 1 to 3 years of classroom teaching experience
- Sound understanding of the developmental stages of middle school students.
- Develop a unit of study that spans several weeks, culminating in a meaningful assessment.
- Ability and willingness to facilitate differentiated, student-centered best practices
- Possess an understanding of literary analysis, writing workshop, and grammar instruction
- Ability and willingness to encourage student discovery and autonomy of thought
- Organized and able to manage a series of student information platforms and systems, including BlackBaud, Google, and Gmail.

Equal access to employment, programs and services is available to all. With respect to its employment practices, Rabun Gap-Nacoochee School does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, gender, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation or identity. Qualified candidates should submit a letter of interest addressing their qualifications for this role and a resume to opportunites@rabungap.org.